NSPCC Definition of Bullying

Bullying is behaviour that hurts someone else. It includes name-calling, hitting, pushing, spreading rumours, threatening or undermining someone.

It can happen anywhere - at school, at home or online. It's usually repeated over a long period of time and can hurt a child both physically and emotionally

Purpose

Aims:

- To fulfil the school's statutory responsibility to respect the rights of children and to safeguard and promote their welfare.

- To promote a school ethos in which each pupil is safe and able to realise their full potential.
- To address the problem of bullying and to bring it under control through the implementation of whole-school policy and procedures.
- To reassure parents and carers that school takes their children's welfare seriously.

Objectives:

- To develop and implement an anti-bullying policy based on a consistently implemented whole school approach

- To make pupils, parents/carers and staff aware of what steps to take when an incident of bullying occurs.
- To demonstrate to bullies that their behaviour is unacceptable and to reassure targeted individuals that action will be taken to keep them safe.
